

Instructional programs from prekindergarten through grade 12 should enable all students to--

- Build new mathematical knowledge through problem solving.
- Apply and adapt a variety of appropriate strategies to solve problems.

Reprint with permission from Principles and Standards for School Mathematics,
Copyright © 2000 by The National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, Inc.
All rights reserved