Angles with Straws and Bobby Pins

Join two straws with two bobby pins as indicated in the next figure. Notice that the bobby pins are intertwined.

The straws will be the sides of the angle; the common point is the vertex of the angle. Start with the two straws close together. They form a very acute angle. The measure of this angle is small.